

happy birthday to my most handsome, cutest, hottest, most caring and my best pookiewookiee babi - blair! \(\circ^> \smile ^< \),♡

how does it feel being 20? hehe, pretty sure you haven't felt it yet. you'll feel unc in a few days, months or even years. don't let your age limit you from doing all the things you want. you can still play games with me even when we're almost 30, or maybe even enjoy eating any kiddish drink or food out there... like strawberry milkshake? hahaha i don't know really. i'm saying this because we're actually getting older now, so that means more responsibilities, right? like jobs and stuff, and that invisible weight we've been carrying on our backs called obligations, jobs or whatever you call it - it's going to get heavier and heavier as we age. even if we're indeed getting +1's in our age every year, you can always be a kid around me, you're safe with me. you can express your emotions, insecurities, everything... but everyone isn't perfect. i'm sorry if i can be insensitive and dismissive sometimes, i just didn't know how to deal with it because one, we're still maturing, and two, my environment wasn't the healthiest to be in.

oops... sorry.

despite my shortcomings, i'll try my best to be as empathetic and understanding as possible. not only to you, but to others as well, but you're my top priority alongside my mom and aunt. i love you too much. i can't imagine a life without you. i'm too attached to you now, which is something pretty hard to achieve, knowing my personality. i'm really happy and grateful that i've met you... and i'm really, really thankful to you for being the best boyfriend/fiancé/husband ever.

WHY AM I GETTING EMOTIONAL?

even after going through a lot of things, it amazes me that we are still together. this shows how resilient we are as a couple, and since you asked me earlier about my thoughts about us, i just want to say one thing: we're like gorilla glue. i, if anything, may be weak alone, but together, we're really strong and inseparable. this also means that we should take care of our own strengths. it's pretty funny for me to talk about this so before i do, i promise i'll stay healthy for myself, for you and for my family.

please take care of your own health honey. i know it's unlikely you're going to end up like me, but eat balanced meals and stay physically active. keep honing your baseball skills. it makes me happy seeing you enjoy and appreciate baseball, and there'll eventually be a time when i'll actually get engaged with it, so don't lose hope. i wish to watch you play or even me throw (or pitch?) the ball at you... then you hit a home run because i'm too bad at pitching hehehe. also, work out because you love it and you want to achieve a fit body. i don't need a six pack or whatnot, i don't care babi, i just want you... or us to stay healthy.

i enjoy seeing your nerdy side too, and please keep yapping to me - i really like it. at the same time, this might give you confidence in uni again so, might be of help too when year 3 starts. wait- you're almost graduating? omgggg WAIT AREN'T WE GRADUATING ON THE SAME YEAR? LMAO sorry angel is stupid!

anyway babi, i can't wait to meet you next year, and move in with you someday! i look forward to doing all sorts of things with you, whether it be starting a family or even travelling in every continent (except antarctica of course). i'm wishing you a happywappy birthday anddd more birthdays to come! stay strong and keep farting, my supreme leader, blair! o7

p.s. sorry for the yappatron. just can't help it.

p.p.s. reminder that you're uncle zhang now. enjoy your 10 years of being in the 'line of 2' age group.

from the bottom of my heart, angel!

my favourite blair pictures!

jk i don't have a favourite, i just love everything.
you're too handsome, please keep being a goofy goober.
